

THIS OCTOBER 2020

the 6th Session of the UN negotiations for a legally Binding Treaty on Transnational Corporations and other business with respect to human rights is taking place.

The Covid-19 crisis - which has increased vulnerability and suffering by workers and affected people throughout global value chains - is a stark indication of why we cannot delay in addressing transnational corporate human rights violations at the international level.

MORE THAN 300 MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENTS

from Africa, Asia, Latin America,
North America and Europe:

URGE
STATES – and regional organisations – to actively engage in this UN process and to work towards an effective and legally binding international instrument,

TO ENSURE THAT PEOPLE'S
DIGNITY, enshrined by universal political, economic, social and cultural rights,

IS PRIORITISED
& GUARANTEED
WORLDWIDE OVER PRIVATE PROFITS.
